Asserts Woman Fails for Silk Stocking Bribe.

New York, Oct. 22.—With women on a new social footing with the ratification of the Nineteenth amendment, silk stockings are being used to bribe women workers at the polls. This is the charge of the Honest Ballot Association of New York. "Bribery of women watchers during the recent registration here was attempted," declares the association, "and in one case succeeded."

"On investigation it was found," said Col. Joseph D. Sears, secretary, "that the district captain had given the woman watcher a handsome pair of silk stockings to act as informant."

Russia Is Calling, But Cold Ocean Blights His Hope.

New York, Oct. 22.—All tales of terror and starvation in Bolshevik Russia have not killed the enthusiasm or desire of Solomon Macdonson, 16 years old, to go there. But Solomon has decided that the swim is too long and the water too cold.

Early this morning his hits face popped up out of the water near a dock in the New York Harbor. Policemen Finnegan hauled him out and took him to the police station. "I decided to go to Russia," Solomon explained, "so I came down to the White Star dock intending to swim out to a ship, hide aboard and work my way to Russia."

"The water was colder than I thought."

ROOSTER GOES TO HOSPITAL

Vineland, N. J., Oct. 22.—The patients in the Vineland Hospital had chicken potpie for dinner yesterday because two women could not agree. Mrs. Grace Urwakse had Mrs. Frank Nichols arrested on the charge of stealing her rooster. Mrs. Nichols denied the charge and proceeded to show marks proving the bird to be her property. Mrs. Urwakse also showed marks to prove her property, and it soon became evident to Justice DeLuca that there were two roosters nearly alike and somebody had stolen one of them, but which one?

While thinking of dividing the rooster on the basis established by Solomon of old, someone suggested to the Justice that the bird be given to the hospital. Both women agreed, and Policeman Florentina locked the rooster in jail until morning, when it was dispatched for the potpie.

ARMY WILL RECRUIT 200 MEN FOR SERVICE ON THE RHINE

Washington, Oct. 22.—Recruiting for the army in Germany will be resumed November 1 with 200 men needed for infantry units overseas. Services on the Rhine has proved so popular, Adjutant-General Harris said, that it took only six days to fill the ranks when vacancies occurred a year ago. A few recruits also will be accepted for the Thirteenth Field Artillery, ordered to Hawaii.

LIFE SAVER AT SIX YEARS

Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 22.—Six-year-old Francis, son of Mrs. Annie Taggart, is the youngest hero of which this city has any record. When his brother, Alfred, three years old, accidentally started the mother's automobile down a hill toward a 35-foot embankment, Francis, who was sitting in the rear seat, crawled to the front of the car and bravely put on brakes, stopping the car within a few feet of the brink.

Film Draws Crowd

More Than 3000 Persons See Virginia's New Hour—Guests of Chamber of Commerce.

More than 3000 persons yesterday witnessed the excellent film production entitled "Virginia's New Hour" shown under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce in the Ingomar Theatre. The persons who witnessed the picture included every qualified voter in the city of Alexandria, they being furnished with free admission tickets by the chamber of commerce. The picture is a state photoplay in which the people of Virginia are shown just as the camera man found them. The blighting effects of primitive roads is clearly shown in the picture, and it is safe to predict that all who witnessed the picture henceforth will be boosters for good roads.

In memory of our dear friend, AD-ELLIE STRUDER, who departed this life one year ago today. Fold her, Oh, Father in thine arms, and let her henceforth be a messenger of love between our human hearts.

By her loving friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith and family.

COX FLAYS HARDING ON LEAGUE WABBLING

Proves G. O. P. Nominee Has Changed Attitude 14 Times

LODGE IS HISSED

Impostor Declares Democratic Leader, If He Doesn't Clarify Stand on Issue—Big Audience Applauds

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—Governor Cox last night claimed the reward offered by Senator Harding yesterday to any one who would show he had been inconsistent in his attitude towards the league of nations, and declared the Republican nominee "may be regarded as an impostor," unless he clarifies the public mind as to his actual position on the league issue.

"Senator Harding complains bitterly again that he has been misinterpreted and that the newspapers have misrepresented him," said the Governor. "He offers a reward to any one who will show that he has changed his attitude on the league of nations."

"Now I am here to show how he has attempted to wiggle and wobble his way into the presidency, and to claim that reward for myself, but for the people of America."

In his proof offered in support of his claim for the reward the Democratic candidate contended that the Senator admitted having changed his position "by the ironical assertion that he is entitled to one more in order to make it fourteen. Now the only trouble with the Senator is this: His arithmetic is at fault."

He has already had fourteen changes as far as I am able to know, because I have not yet had opportunity to read the evening papers."

Governor Cox then enumerated the fourteen alleged "wabbles" by his opponent of which he said he knew. He said:

"1. First, he voted for the mild reservations.

"2. Then he voted for the Lodge reservations.

"3. Then he said that if he had to do it over he would not vote even for the Lodge reservations.

"4. Then he voted for the Knox resolution providing for a separate peace with Germany.

"5. Then he accepted the nomination on the platform which said the league has signally failed.

"6. Then he endorsed the re-establishment of The Hague tribunal, which showed its failure, as expressed by Theodore Roosevelt, because it had no power behind it, and under which the four greatest wars in history took place.

"7. Then he offered a 'new plan' in the International Court of Justice, which he learned Elihu Root was working on.

"8. Then he rejected the international court of justice when he discovered what every one had known but him, that it was the supreme court of the league of nations.

"9. In his speech of September 6 he said, 'Amendment or revision or reconstruction of the league covenant is still among the possibilities'; and

"10. In the same speech he said, 'The league has now passed beyond all possibility of restoration.'

"11. At Des Moines he said, 'Cox favors going into the league; I favor staying out. I am not interested in clarification; I am interested in rejection.'

"12. Returning to Marion from Des Moines, he said, 'I can't understand why it is that the people of America don't understand what I said at Des Moines, and that he wasn't to be taken to mean what he said; and

ADDRESS BY C. C. CARLIN

Monday Night in Young People's Building—Audience Cameron Club

The second of the series of addresses planned by the Cameron Club will be given Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Young People's Building, when the Hon. Charles C. Carlin, will speak on the state government.

The first address was given by Mrs. Witter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who showed the part that organization of over 2,000,000 women had taken in the practical work of the world, which was now asking them to assume the responsibility that was now theirs since the suffrage bill had passed.

In anticipation of the passage of this bill, for several years great numbers of the clubs throughout the various states have been studying the laws that would prepare them for citizenship, and this winter the Cameron Club has planned to give a series of public addresses on government. On three separate evenings, local, state and national government will be considered.

It was the intention to place local government first, but at the present moment the state and national issues are at the front, and on Monday night Mr. Carlin will discuss the various phases of state government.

To have a speaker of Mr. Carlin's ability and wide experience is a most happy incident and the Cameron Club is to be congratulated that it has such a pleasure to offer to its friends.

Catholic Club

Will Conduct Intensive Membership Campaign—Congregational Night—Seek 500 Members.

The second of a series of card parties to be given by St. Mary's Catholic Club was largely attended last night. During the evening announcement was made that a drive for new members would be started with the result that fifty-one names were added to the membership.

Under present plans the large reading room is to be remodeled and the latest literature added to the shelves. The billiard room is to be equipped for the use of ladies and gentlemen. Plans provide for dances, card parties, moving pictures, amateur theatricals, etc., every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

A general meeting of the congregation will be held Thursday, October 28, at 8 p. m., and all members of St. Mary's and St. Rita's churches are urged to attend as the membership committee is determined to reach their goal of five hundred members by November. Thus far the response has been most gratifying, and it is the belief of those entrusted with the details that Alexandria will shortly boast of the largest club of its kind in the South.

DIED.

EDWARD J. MAUPIN, the 6 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maupin, died at the home of his parents, 109 North Fayette street, this morning. Funeral Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MARKET ADVERTISING INCREASES.

Alexandria's markets are coming to the front with a rapidity that requires considerable care in the taking care of their many advertisements. Today, the Gazette is running a full page of market advertisements on Page 4, and besides these ads, several had to be used on another page.

The additional markets have all been placed together on Page 2 and all readers of the Gazette, who are anxious to effect real saving in the purchasing of meats and table necessities are requested to scan these pages thoroughly.

Officials Deny Willson Will Sojourn In Alps.

Washington, Oct. 22.—White House officials denied yesterday the truth of cabled reports from Switzerland that President and Mrs. Wilson intend to go to that country for a prolonged stay following the President's relinquishment of office on March 4. News stories from Switzerland that supposed emissaries of the White House now are looking for a suitable retreat for the President and Mrs. Wilson were declared, at the executive office, to be without foundation.

While there has been no announcement what the President plans to do after March 4, there is a persistent report here that Mr. Wilson will locate near Washington and that in driving through the suburbs of the capital the President always keeps an eye open for an attractive home that might be acquired for his occupancy next year.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL TEAMS

The Rossmore juniors defeated the Drednought juniors by a score of 14 to 0 yesterday. Blunt starred for the Rossmore. Fletcher's line playing for the Rossmore was a feature of the game. The Rossmore are anxious to meet any 105 pound team in the city.

The Destroyers Athletic football team tomorrow will go to Washington and play the Stars. Tomorrow is a good game is expected. Players will meet at 2 p. m., at the Alexandria High school grounds and the game will be played on the Monument grounds, Washington at 3 p. m.

A democratic mass meeting will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday night in the opera house under the auspices of the Cox, Roosevelt and Moore Democratic Club, and will be addressed by Hon. Edwin F. Sweet, Assistant Secretary of Commerce. The ladies are especially invited.

Mr. Sweet is regarded as a splendid speaker and no doubt he will be greeted by a large audience.

The democrats of this city are anxious that a large crowd, including every democrat in the city and others interested, attend this meeting.

FORCE FOOD ON DYING LORD MAYOR

MacSwiney Alternates Between Delirium and Comatose Condition

70th DAY OF FAST

Under Coercion Act Freeman's Journal Faces Suppression—Black and Tans Continue Brutality.

London, Oct. 22.—Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, was delirious and at the point of death last night after 70 days of hunger strike in Brixton Prison.

For 24 hours the prisoner has been semiconscious, unable to recognize his wife and sister, who have been constantly at his bedside. The physician says that scurvy, which attacked the Lord Mayor Tuesday, now seizes his body.

Last night while the Lord Mayor was unconscious he was fed forcibly a little beef juice. Upon partly regaining consciousness and noticing the taste in his mouth he became violently hysterical and whispered hoarsely, "They've tricked me." Yes, the prisoner was constantly moving his feeble hands before his face as though to ward off further efforts to feed him. The prison physicians disregarded his wishes, however, and when he lapses into unconsciousness they again fed him.

According to the Irish Self-Determination League last night was the first time the prisoner has had food since his arrest, but the belief that MacSwiney has fed him persists.

MacSwiney's sister telegraphed a friend in Cork yesterday urging action for the speedy death of the Lord Mayor.

Although MacSwiney has lived far too long for his death to have the greatest effect as republican propaganda for influencing sentiment in Ireland, this week would be unfortunate if the prisoner should die, as a expected. The Government's announced intention of enforcing repressive measures against republican sympathizers in Ireland in its campaign to stamp out murder is arousing enough anti-British feeling in Ireland without needing the spark of MacSwiney's death to touch off the powder magazine.

Yesterday, apparently in fulfillment of the Government's plan to "make Ireland from end to end for arms and assassins," the military, supported by armored cars, made extensive raids and many arrests in Dublin.

Under the coercion act, the Freeman's Journal faces suppression, the first Irish newspaper to suffer this. Martin Fitzgerald, the proprietor, has been summoned to appear before a court-martial today. The art editor of the newspaper and one reporter have been arrested.

At Leap, near Skibberdeen, unidentified men ambushed three Black and Tans, wounding and then disarming them.

All of the newspapers yesterday publish accounts of the brutal stripping and flooring of a score or more of country folk at Lahinch, in County Galway, by the Black and Tans, on the ground that they were known to be Sinn Féiners and hence probable in sympathy with the murderers of policemen.

OPEN MEETING.

Mrs. Giles Scott Rafter to Address Parent-Teachers' Association.

At an open meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association in the Young People's Building, Tuesday, at 8 p. m., Mrs. Giles Scott Rafter, of Washington, will speak on "Cooperation of Parents with Schools." Mrs. Rafter is a speaker of charming personality and it is hoped that all patrons and friends of the school will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear her.

CARD OF THANKS.

The family of the late Alfred P. Doss, wishes to extend its heartfelt gratitude to the many kind friends for the beautiful floral tributes, courtesies, and above all, for their sympathy in its recent bereavement.

WAR OR PEACE.

Forty-one nations have ratified the League of Nations to prevent future wars and preserve international peace on condition of right and justice. None of these nations, including all of the great Powers of the world excepting the United States and Russia, have found fault in the terms of the covenant abridging their sovereignty. Russia is not at present under the control of rulers who acknowledge the binding force of treaty obligations. The United States alone stands aloof, although it took part in the great war to put an end to militarism and was mainly responsible for the adoption of the League as one of the essential parts of the peace treaty.

Thus far the Senate has failed to ratify the treaty of peace. The question of ratification has been practically referred to the voters of the country. On November 2 every voter will be asked to decide for himself or herself whether we shall have war or peace.

Shall we go on and tax ourselves for the maintenance of a standing army, a fleet of battleships, airships and all the costly contrivances for the destruction of life and property, or shall we agree to keep the peace, as the whole civilized world now asks us to do? It is not a question of partisanship. It is a question of morals and duty. Never in the nineteen hundred and twenty years since the Prince of Peace came into the world to make it a better world to live in has there been such an opportunity of right-doing as now confronts the people of this country.

Your Body Vigorous and Healthy

When impurities creep into your blood the first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

Nearly everybody needs a few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, to cleanse out all impurities about twice a year. It is an excellent idea to take this precaution to keep the system in a vigorous condition so as to more easily resist disease to which every one is subject. S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

Offer to Shake Hands With Fox Rouses England.

London, Oct. 22.—A heated controversy has aroused England during the past week over a letter signed

Mrs. ROSE E. TUTTLE, of Portland, Maine, who says she feels like she has taken a new lease on life since taking Tanlac. Her rheumatism and other troubles have been overcome.

"Tanic is the greatest medicine on earth, and I just wish it was so every woman who suffers like I did could know what it will really do," said Mrs. Rose E. Tuttle, of 293 Congress Street, Portland, Maine, recently.

"No one will ever know how I suffered," she said. "My stomach was so disordered I had to be very careful about what I ate. Potatoes and other starchy foods would completely upset me. Frequently after meals I would have terrible pains in my stomach, my breath would get short, and I would have a depressed and uneasy feeling about my heart. Often I was troubled with pains under my shoulder blades and I frequently had bilious attacks. I also suffered with rheumatism, and this, together with my other troubles, was simply wrecking my health. I felt weak, nervous and run-down all the time, and seemed to be losing weight and strength every day. My sleep was poor, and often I was in such misery I wouldn't close my eyes all night long."

"Before I finished my first bottle of Tanlac I realized I had at last found the right medicine. My condition improved daily as I continued taking Tanlac, my appetite picked up and I was soon eating three hearty meals every day without suffering in the least afterwards. That horrible indigestion has disappeared, I am no longer nervous, I sleep soundly all night and feel splendidly all during the day. My strength has been increased until I can now do all my housework with ease. I am praising Tanlac every opportunity I have."

by fifty-seven members of the faculty of Oxford University to educators in Germany and Austria urging them to "assist in the hastening of an amicable reunion which civilization demands."

Doctor Ignatie, dean of St. Paul's in a speech before the Church Congress supported the peace move with the statement that "I don't think history will acquit our late enemies of waging the war atrociously, but they think we are waging a peace atrociously, and I am terribly afraid they are right. It is absurd to treat everyone living between the Rhine and the Danube and the Vistula as if he personally was responsible.

Oxford students and professors who refused to endorse the letter denounced it as unrepresentative of the general opinion there.

The step may lead to international complications as it is considered by the French press as uncalled-for and as likely to have a detrimental influence on Anglo-French relations.
